

POMP AND COLOR OF REAL COURT FOR RULERS OF CONEY

King Joe Howard and Queen
Ethlyn Clark Await Mardi
Gras Coronation.

The reign of King Joe Howard and his beautiful consort, Queen Ethlyn Clark, as rulers of the Coney Island Mardi Gras is going to be, beyond doubt, the most wonderful ever enjoyed by any monarchs occupying the throne.

From the hour of their coronation in Luna Park, at 7 o'clock Monday night, Their Majesties will experience no surcease of enjoyment and entertainment until the very end of the carnival, which is to be appropriately closed on Sunday night, Sept. 17, with a court ball in the royal ballroom of Steeplechase Park.

The King with his retinue and the Queen with her maids of honor and ladies in waiting, will receive their subjects from their throne of purple and gold, backed by mirrors, at one end of the ballroom, and at the appointed hour Queen Ethlyn will give the royal command to begin the dance.

Grand Marshal Edward P. Tilyou and his Esquire, Thomas McMahon, have given orders that no expense is to be spared for the transformation of the ballroom into a chamber of regal beauty with all the furnishings of an Oriental court. Lights will be arranged so as to produce theatrical and colorful effects, and showers of confetti will fall at intervals from the gilded ceiling.

Twenty of the attendants of Steeplechase Park will be arrayed in court raiment, including the Steeplechase red coats and knee breeches, white silk stockings and pumps. There will be pages galore, led by Eddie and Mattie Dowden. George Tilyou will be Master of Ceremonies.

From New York are going many members of the National Vaudeville Artists, which contributed so materially to the success of the King and Queen in The Evening World coupon combat. They will be hailed to court by the Imperial decree of their beloved King and Queen, both of whom are members of the organization, King Howard being the first life member to have been elected.

Among those to be invited to participate in the court ceremonies will be Joseph A. Reid, who was second in the race for the throne. Mr. Reid proved himself a gallant knight and was among the first to telegraph his congratulations to King Joe Howard and his bonny Queen Ethlyn. This was one of the telegrams which most pleased the King and Queen.

Queen Ethlyn will invite to become members of her royal suite, some of the ladies who led the hosts on the plains of Coney in the immortal Evening World coupon engagement. There will be lots of pretty girls among her maids of honor and ladies in waiting, who will shed the radiance of their beauty in the royal ballroom on the occasion of the court dance.

From among her own particular pals the Queen has already selected as three of her pretty maids of honor Miss Julia Nash, Miss Carmel Myers and Isabel D. Armond. All are members of the National Vaudeville Artists, and Fred Stone, President of the latter organization, will crown the King and the Queen at Luna Park.

Henry Chesterfield, Secretary of the N. V. A., is going to be one of the lordly knights of King Howard, and will marshal the royal gathering from his association at the court ball at Steeplechase Park on the last night of the carnival.

Only a few days are left now for the beginning of the consummation of Coney Island's glorious Carnival, when the reign of the merry monarchs will start. Each night there will be a pageant with beautiful floats and more beautiful girls and civic organizations.

Coronation night will find the Carnival Committee all in readiness to proceed with the festivities, and Grand Marshal Tilyou has promised that there will be no delay in starting the pageant, which will move down Surf Avenue at 8 o'clock on the dot.

One of the organizations which will take part is that of the Woodmen of the World, Wednesday night having been set apart as the night of their order. The turnout promises to be a glorious one, and Brigadier Gen. Harvey has furnished the committee

IRELAND WILL ASK TO JOIN LEAGUE

England Will Not Object, Is Belief.

GENEVA, Sept. 8.—Ireland is to apply to the assembly of the League of Nations for membership, representatives of the Irish Government, here for that purpose, announced to-day. As soon as the Irish Parliament meets to-morrow this action will be taken.

It is not expected England will offer any opposition, and if she does not there will probably be no other votes against Ireland. Many Englishmen think it would be a good thing for London to admit Ireland because there would be general recognition of Ireland's status as a member of the British Empire the same as Canada, Australia and New Zealand, which would automatically render more difficult the endeavors of the independent faction.

TIERNANS AGREE NOT TO SEPARATE

Professor Demands Quick Trial on Child's Paternity.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 8.—The Tiernans will not separate, at least not until the courts have disposed of the charge that Harry Poulin, clothing merchant, is the father of Mrs. Tiernan's baby. It was made known at the Tiernan home here to-day, John P. Tiernan, professor of law at the University of Notre Dame, and his wife, Augusta, apparently are happy in their devotion to the three children, including the baby.

Prof. Tiernan says he will assume personal charge of the prosecution, and will oppose any efforts for further postponement of the preliminary hearing set for Sept. 14. Prosecuting Attorney Jellison and the professor are sifting the evidence to be presented.

Mrs. Tiernan reiterated to-day that she will tell the entire story of her alleged relations with Mr. Poulin on the witness stand. Poulin maintains silence.

ARGUE MANDAMUS IN TOBACCO SUITS

Federal Trade Commission Wants Commerce Records.

Argument was heard to-day before Judge Manton in the United States District Court on motions made by the Federal Trade Commission for the issuance of preceptory mandamus directing the American Tobacco Company, Inc., of No. 111 Fifth Avenue, and the P. Lorillard Company, Inc.,

of No. 119 West 40th Street to surrender records in reference to their interstate and foreign commerce in tobacco and tobacco products.

Alternative mandamus had been granted by Judge Knox on June 23 calling on the companies to produce those records, so that the Federal Trade Commission could incorporate them in their report to the United States Senate as called for in a resolution adopted in August, 1921. These mandamus had not been complied with, the companies claiming that under the Federal Trade Act the commission has no power and Congress also is without power to demand the surrender of records in which are commingled intrastate as well as interstate business of the two companies.

Arthur S. Barnes made the argument in support of the motions, which were opened by William D. Guthrie, Frank D. Walsh and Junius Parker.

DAD FINES BAILIFF SON $5 FOR ABSENCE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Roman justice was meted out yesterday when Glenn Hardison, police court bailiff, did not report for duty until 1:30 P. M. Judge Robert Hardison, his father, summoned him to the bar to explain his tardiness. The bailiff testified that he had accompanied some friends from Kentucky on a sight-seeing tour. His father thereupon fined him $5 for contempt of court because of his absence without leave.

Bailiff Hardison announced he would employ counsel and appeal from Judge Hardison's decision.
